

Declarations Concerning Transition

We declare and declare:

- We will not cower at transition or discomfort, but we will lean into the arms of God, trusting that He will lead us, guide us, and protect us.
- We stand firm on the word of God, believing God's word fully above all else and walking in obedience unto Him no matter what pressures or circumstances we may face.
- We will lean on the discernment of the Holy Spirit in us to see the enemy when he presents himself in any form.
- In the name of Jesus, we will not give up at challenge. Instead, we will remember that God has already deemed us victorious and act accordingly.
- By faith, we move forward boldly with the full expectation of what God has promised in each new season.
- We recognize and believe everything the Holy Spirit is showing us as we experience transition.
- We are not shaken by the enemy's tactics. We know and believe that God lives in us and has given us authority to stomp and defeat the enemy and his tactics.
- Our entire family will listen closely for the Lord's instruction as we move forward in His will.
- We see through the eyes of God's Spirit that lives in us, and we do not just quickly accept everything that we see with our physical eyes. Instead, we see God's promises.
- In the name of Jesus, we are not afraid of what's next to come. Instead, we are eager to actively walk in the will that the Lord has for our lives.
- No trick of the enemy will slow our movement forward in Christ.
- In the face of transition, challenge, difficulty, opposition, or even struggle, we will stay committed to God and come out clean without damage or negative effects.
- Nothing can cause us to lose hope or faith.
- We bind all negative feelings and emotions that may cause us to doubt or promote stagnation, and we loose God's love, peace, wisdom, and comforting in its place.
- We are stepping into one of the best seasons of our lives, and it shall be good, fruitful, and growth-provoking.

- We are well equipped to ensure any challenge that comes as we enter any new season.
- We have access to the endless provisions of Heaven, and God trusts us to use them wisely and responsibly to build His Kingdom and tend to His sheep.
- Doors are opening, opportunities are coming, and God's promises are manifesting in our lives.
- God has given us favor with everyone we encounter.
- Our character and our lives reflect God's very plan, will, and hopes for us. In the name of Jesus, all aspects of our lives visibly display God's hand, love, grace, mercy, and power.
- God has given us the mind, heart, and body to sustain in all things that we may face in life, and so shall it be.
- For all things on this list: We have faith. We believe it. We receive it, and it is so! In Jesus' name, amen.
